Approved by the Library Board of Trustees, June 2025

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT POLICY

I. Purpose Statement

The collection development policy is a guide for librarians in selecting materials and to inform the public about the principles behind collection development decisions.

Collection development is the process for adding materials to the collection, retaining materials already in the collection, withdrawing materials from the collection, and choosing materials for library programs, promotions and professional development to increase the quality, accessibility, and quantity of the entire collection.

Materials selected for the collection will meet both the current and long-term needs of North Liberty and area residents of all ages and abilities for information, education, culture and recreation. Library staff are committed to offering the widest possible range of subjects and views in a variety of formats and reading levels, Collection development will support the priorities of the goals in the Library's strategic plan. The responsibility for collection development lies with the Director, who provides oversight and delegates the responsibility of the professional selection of materials by qualified and knowledgeable staff.

II. Materials Selection Guidelines

A. The Library subscribes to the principles embodied in the Library Bill of Rights, Freedom to Read and Freedom to View statements adopted by the American Library Association (ALA).

B. The Library recognizes that individuals or groups may have differing views about the content of specific items or subjects. In accordance with accepted principles of intellectual freedom and the right to access information, the Library will not remove specific titles solely because they may be considered objectionable.

C. Selection of books and/or materials is based on interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the communities served and represents a wide variety of viewpoints. Materials will not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.

D. Items must align with the Library's mission statement and chosen roles for service.

E. Selection considerations include cost, space limitations, availability from approved vendors, current holdings and demand.

F. The Library recognizes the purposes and resources of other area information agencies and does not needlessly duplicate materials.

G. Library acquisitions are generally limited to works of broad public interest rather than specialized or academic works.

H. The Library participates in programs designed to provide patrons access to materials not owned, including interlibrary loan, reciprocal borrowing agreements, and access to online resources.

I. Items considered for selection are evaluated as a whole, not based on a particular section or sections.

J. Professional reviews in periodicals and online may be used as a basis for evaluation in conjunction with publishers' catalogs and advertisements.

K. When possible, digital materials are selected in accordance with this policy. Some digital materials are provided as shared content with partner libraries. As such, titles in these collections may be selected by other library partners and may not conform to this policy's guidelines.

L. Materials selected for the collection may be physically owned by the Library or accessed through the Library's or a vendor's web site.

M. Remote electronic access to digital resources may be limited by licensing constraints.

N. Purchasing materials for the collection does not include endorsement of their contents by the staff of the Library or the City of North Liberty.

O. Patron suggestions for materials selection will be taken into consideration within the parameters of the Collection Development Policy, budget, and physical space.

III. Access

A. Selection of materials is not restricted by the possibility that children may obtain materials their parents or legal guardians may consider inappropriate. While materials are shelved by recommended age, patrons of any age may use materials in all sections of the library (see ALA Bill of Rights, Article V) Responsibility for children rests solely with their parents or legal guardians.

B. While an individual or group is free to reject material, library staff members will not restrict access to or censor materials for the rest of the community.

C. Please see the Library Service Policy for information regarding Patron Privacy.

IV. Selection Responsibility and Scope

A. Under the direction of the Collection Development Librarian, responsibility for collection development lies with librarians who apply professional knowledge, experience, and the criteria of this policy when making selection decisions for the library.

B. Materials selection in Collection Development Policy applies to all formats, including print, non-print, audio-visual, and electronic resources. Evolving formats will be identified and added as technology changes, reliability and availability improve, and patron demand increases.

V. Collection Maintenance

A. To ensure that the library collection remains up-to-date and relevant to the community's needs, it is the responsibility of the library staff to regularly re-evaluate the usefulness of materials held in the collection.

B. Library staff will remove materials from the collection as they become out-of-date, badly worn, damaged, or are no longer being used. Space, cost of replacement, and appearance of the collection are also factors. Locally significant materials are not held to these standards and are generally retained.

Materials withdrawn from the North Liberty Library may be sold in library book sales or recycled.

VI. Gifts & Donations

A. The Library may, in its discretion, accept contributions of library materials in formats that are also available in the Library's collection and monetary gifts that supplement the library budget.
B. Contributions of materials should be in good condition and less than five years old.
C. The same criteria and guidelines that apply to the selection of all library materials are used to evaluate gifts and donations. It is understood that gifts and donations are freely given without conditions attached and that all gifts and donations will be used or disposed of as the Library deems appropriate.
D. The Library does not accept donor-restricted contributions of materials or property. Gifts of materials accepted by the Library are used at the discretion of library administration and staff to support programs and services.
E. While the Library cannot guarantee gifts will be used for a specific purpose, staff may take into account consider a donor's non-binding wishes when deciding how monetary gifts are applied within the library's programming, collection, and service goals.
F. Gifts may be tax-deductible subject to a donor's personal tax situation, and receipts are available upon request. Receipts for non-monetary donations will describe the items donated but will not include a fair market or appraisal values for donated materials. Receipts for monetary gifts will include the amount received, consistent with the Internal Revenue Code gift acknowledgement requirements.
G. The library may transfer materials not added to the collection for donation and acceptance by the Friends of the North Liberty Library to be used for annual book sales, proceeds of which help supplement the library's operational budget. Friends of the North Liberty Library has discretion to decline to accept any such donation.

Child Safety Policy

Revised as of November, 2018

The North Liberty Community Center welcomes all ages and aims to provide an environment / place for all to enjoy. Patron safety and welfare are top priorities. The community center is the heartbeat of the City and we strongly promote family use. Recreation Staff have been researching ways to minimize recent incidents of unattended children, theft, bullying, fighting, pool safety jumps and disrespectful actions among patrons, towards staff and to the facility. We have also researched other facilities in preparing our recommendation:

Children in Grade 6 or older may use the facility without supervision.

Unattended Child Age:

Children in Grade 5 and under must be accompanied by an adult, sibling, sitter who is at least 16 years old for drop- in use or enrolled in a supervised activity/program when using the facility. Supervision must be in visual contact and same area of facility.

Children who have completed Grade 5 in May and will be in Grade 6 in the Fall must obtain a Facility Pass and may utilize designated drop-in use areas without supervision. Cannot use track or weight & exercise equipment unless supervised by an adult and pay associated fees.

Grade 7 & 8 must show a current School ID or obtain a Track Pass and may utilize the facility on own; except for the weight area in which they must be under the guidance of an adult and pay associated fees.

Grade 9-12 must show a current School ID or obtain a Membership Pass and may utilize the facility including the weight area and pay associated fees with no adult supervision.

Facility Pass / Identification: Children in Grade 6 or older without a school ID, must obtain a Facility Pass and present it upon each visit to facility, unless enrolled in a supervised activity/program. The Facility Pass will help identify and monitor usage during free play in the gymnasium, pools, library or community center grounds.

Facility passes can be purchased on a monthly or annual basis. North Liberty residents: $10 per month, $60 annual. Non-residents: $13 per month, $75 annual. A $2 replacement fee will be assessed to all for each new card printed. Facility passes can be obtained and completed with a parent or guardian in person at the North Liberty Community Center during regular business hours.

Loitering / Non-supervised Areas: Appropriate behavior to others, to staff and to the facility is expected and is the responsibility of each person. Rec Staff are present to answer questions, clarify rules and resolve issues that are brought to their attention. Library/Recreation Staff do not have direct supervision of children at all times and in all areas of the facility, loitering and random wandering throughout the facility will not be tolerated. Locker rooms for example should not be a place for kids to hang out. Facility drop-in use parameters for approved areas of use, expectations and conduct rules may be requested by parent and child.

Patron Discipline Policy: Use of the North Liberty Community Center is a privilege. If patrons are involved in any issue of theft, bullying, fighting and disrespectful actions among patrons, towards staff and to the facility disciplinary action will be enforced. A copy of the Patron Disciplinary Policy may be requested by parent and child.

Sincerely,

Shelly Simpson Recreation Director
